

Application for International Relations (Media)

Dear Hiring Committee,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the International Relations (Media) position at the Faculty of Medicine Siriraj Hospital, Mahidol University. With my background in Tourism and Service Industry Management and my current experience as a Research Project Coordinator at the Ministry of Tourism and Sports, I am confident in my ability to support both the international coordination and creative media needs of the faculty.

In my current role, I lead the core coordination of national research projects. This involves managing complex timelines, synthesizing data, and handling official government correspondence. I am accustomed to acting as a key liaison between internal and external agencies, ensuring that all administrative and procurement processes are handled with precision. I believe this experience has provided me with the organizational discipline and communication skills required for an international relations role.

Regarding the Media and Communication aspect of the position, I have a strong passion for creative content development. I am proficient in using digital tools such as Canva and CapCut to produce high quality visual materials, infographics, and video content. I am comfortable managing social media platforms and understand how to create engaging content that aligns with institutional objectives. Additionally, my previous experience in the service industry has helped me develop strong interpersonal skills and a service-oriented mindset, which are essential for welcoming international guests and coordinating cross-cultural events.

I am a highly motivated individual, committed to continuous professional growth. I have been actively enhancing my English proficiency through intensive courses from Chiang Mai University and Prince of Songkla University. I am fully prepared to meet the English testing requirements and am eager to bring my combination of coordination experience and creative skills to your team.

I have attached my resume for your review. Thank you for your time and for considering my application. I look forward to the possibility of discussing how I can contribute to the Faculty of Medicine Siriraj Hospital.

Sincerely,

Yodsakorn Chantapaso
